Marketing Suite Case Study:

A Fortune 10 Company recently leveraged the Marketing Alignment interview app from 9Lenses' Marketing Suite, querying the value and effectiveness of key marketing activities in the field. By crowdsourcing insights from the individuals leading global marketing, sales, and product, several key focus areas were identified. Lack of local marketing insights was negatively impacting marketing's ability to target its globally dispersed and locally unique markets. Sales and product's expectations for marketing were significantly misaligned. However, marketing's efforts were too narrowly focused on aligning with sales, rather than aligning sales with customers and target markets.

Armed with these crucial insights, the Fortune 10 Company immediately took action to correct course and improve marketing's customer intelligence and change primary metrics from sales alignment (e.g. pipeline, driving leads) to customer alignment (e.g. retention, engagement).

9Lenses Marketing Apps enable you to tap into and connect your marketing team's collective wisdom. Your team's insights can enable your team to perform at the level of a world-class marketing organization. A variety of marketing apps focus on three key areas to equip you and your marketing team for success:

Discovery Apps

Target improvement efforts on critical areas. Discovery Apps allow you to diagnose issues, clarify your marketing team's strengths, weaknesses, and training needs, crowdsource strategic planning, and assess your organization's competitive intelligence capabilities.

Systems and Tools Program

Selecting the optimal mix of marketing tools and systems for your organization is complicated. Develop best practices based on what currently works and identify areas in need of improvement or change. Systems and Tools Apps work together to create a program which allows you to improve, decide whether to keep, evaluate, and implement a wide variety of systems and tools.

Marketing Alignment Program

Query your team on current expectations to inform future expectation setting and increase efficiency of joint efforts. Marketing Alignment Apps work together to ensure Marketing is aligned with the Product and Sales organization and the Customer to ensure that Marketing is driving innovation.

With the 9Lenses Marketing Software Suite, collect strategic input from your marketing team, gauge how well the marketing strategy is aligned with sales and product, optimize resource allocation, gather and understand customer needs and insights, crowdsource differentiation strategies, and assess your organization's use of social media. Best of all, your data is aggregated in one Analytics platform in real-time, allowing you to identify trends, diagnose misalignment, develop targeted solutions from those in the field, and pinpoint areas in need of more training or communication. Crowdsource insights you need to know to excel at marketing in the digital age.

ORGANIZATIONAL INTELLIGENCE SOFTWARE
